

Stuck Like Glue

3 0 1

Chapter 1 by Anna-Claire Raulston

Amanda was a girl who thought love was the stupidest thing in life. She had only loved once, and that was enough to know for her. She had trust issues with everyone, and thought she would never find love again. She had always had mixed emotions about it, and still does this day. She doesn't know if she exactly wants it. She just wants someone to be there for her, and her to be there for them. Someone that will love her for herself and she will do the same back. It just wasn't that easy. She also thought she would never be loved again.

That was until someone new showed up that very day in class. She looked up for a split second and saw the beautiful human being who God had created.
